

Conformity of test results

GSI-PL FB001

This statement of conformity applies in addition to the GTC (General Terms and Conditions) and respectively to the customer order.

According to the standard DIN EN ISO/IEC 17025:2018, chapter 7.8.3.1 and 7.8.6, there is a requirement to agree on the conformity of test results with the customer. The applied decision rule must be documented.

GSI mbH uses the following decision rules:

1. If the decision rule is specified in the standards or specifications of the testing commissioned, these shall be deemed to have been agreed with the customer.
2. If the customer requires a different decision rule or his own requirement for the test result, he must notify them separately in writing with the order request / order and indicate the corresponding decision case (No. I - VII) according to this document.
3. Unless the above items 1 and 2 are not present, the following decision rule is applied in principle.

Decision rule according to 3. (as mentioned above)
